The 10 Friendliest Cities in the U.S.

The Best Places to Throw a Destination Wedding

"The capital city maintains a youthful energy with its community of artists and chefs, but you can get a dose of history when you stroll past the colonial architecture in the Old Town. Even if you venture outside of San Juan, you'll find a sense of community—one that only grows as the Island continues to rebuild."

"Situated on 50 acres just west of San Juan, Dorado Beach, a Ritz-Carlton Reserve is a cut above its Puerto Rican counterparts—but shares in the convenience of generous airlift and U.S.-territory borders that will have your guests RSVP 'yes' in a heartbeat."
