

What's New

IN PUERTO RICO?

Puerto Rico is thriving, and exciting projects, initiatives, and businesses are constantly developing. Here's your monthly update for February and March 2023 about the new developments on the Island that continue to improve the #LiveBoricia experience for visitors.

NORTH & METRO REGION

In the Metro region of the Island, a new cocktail bar just opened in Old San Juan and the Condado area. Also, there are two new gastronomic offerings, El Champi, which is a Spanish restaurant located in the historic Old San Juan, and Jacinta Cuisine, a Mediterranean and Caribbean fusion restaurant in Santurce. For a no-cost immersive tour experience in Old San Juan, you can now use Free Audio Guides Puerto Rico.

CENTRAL REGION

- Finca Bee Happy
- Clandestino Gastrobar

Finca Bee Happy just opened in Aibonito. This is a new mix of hiking, camping, and ecotourism activities in the Island's Central region, including a Jibarito de la Cajita Tour. Also, Gurabo has a new gastrobar where you will find delicious cocktails and tapas.
